Sadaqatul-Fitr (Fitrah)

Alert! Beware! Ensure Your Fitrah Is Discharged Correctly – In Accordance To The Shari'ah!

As the day of Eid-ul-Fitr is fast approaching, Muslims around the country are preparing to discharge their Sadaqatul-Fitr (Fitrah). Sadaqatul-Fitr can also be called Fitrah – both mean the same thing.

We would like to highlight to the Muslim community of South Africa the following important points to ensure that your Waajib Fitrah is discharged Islamically:

The ideal manner of discharging your Fitrah

Since there is ample time before the day of Eid, we urge you to obtain a reliable Kitaab that discusses the Laws and Rules pertaining to Sadaqatul-Fitr (Fitrah).

Learn those Masaa'il. Learn who are the recipients of Sadaqatul-Fitr. Accordingly, discharge your family's Fitrah yourself – if possible.

A common famous Kitaab to use which discusses these Masaa'il is Beshti-Zewar. If you don't have a hard-copy, download a digital PDF copy. For researching any Dunya-related issue, we manage to find time, internet-data and the appropriate websites to go on, so this should not be a big issue, Insha Allah.

Alternative manner of discharging your Fitrah

If, due to whatever reasons, you are unable to discharge Fitrah personally, then the alternative is to send your money to reliable and trustworthy organisations and/or institutes. Look for religious (Deendaar) and pious Ulama who are collecting Fitrah money who adhere to the Laws of the Shari'ah in their doings at all times.

Whatever you do, please ensure that your Fitrah money is handled by Ulama who fear Allah Ta'ala, adhere to the Sunnats of Nabi (Sallallahu alaihi wasallam) and abide by the Laws of Deen, especially: Hijaab, abstaining from pictography and having a clear stance regarding the Shi'as, just to mention a few.

Haram manner of discharging your Fitrah – Fitrah will NOT be discharged Islamically in this manner!

It is Haram to send your Fitrah (or any other contributions!) to UUCSA (united ulama council of South Africa – besides two of their bodies), this includes:

1. Jamiat of Fordsburg (Moolana Bham's Jamiat) and ALL organisations under this 'Jamiat'
2. ALL Jamiatul-Ulama South Africa offices in the various towns and provinces across South Africa
3. MJC (Muslim Judicial Council in Cape Town) and any group that operates under them
4. Radio Islam
5. Any other organisation or group or Molvi that openly, flagrantly and audaciously acts in contrary to any Law of the Deen and justifies their sins which they commit in public.

The Enemies of Allah – Friends of the Kuffar – i.e. UUCSA (besides two bodies), their secretary general, their president, their radio and anyone else who does not make clear the status of the Shi'as (whether they are Kaafir or not) are Munaafiqeen! Sadaqatul-Fitr or Fitrah can NOT be given to Munaafiqeen who in turn discharge it to the poor! How can we trust they will discharge our Waajib Fitrah according to the Shari'ah if they can NOT claim the status of Shi'as, and they have called for the SHUTTING DOWN of the Masaajid???

Nabi (Sallallahu alaihi wasallam) said, "The fast remains suspended between heaven and earth until the Fitrah is paid."
