The Ulama-e-Government – Beware Of Them!

Announcing the only sources of assistance when in difficulty, Allah Ta’ala declares clearly in His Holy Kalaam: “O You who have Imaan! Seek help (from Allah) by means of Sabr and Salaah.” (Baqarah, Aayat 152)

The above Aayat clearly points out to the importance of adopting Sabr and establishing Salaah during a difficulty. While we all understand the meaning of ‘Salaah’, it should be remembered that only that Salaah is meant which meets the demands of the Sunnah and the Shari’ah.

Thus, under ‘Salaah’ ALL the departments of the Sunnah are included. It is farfetched to even hallucinate that discarding any Sunnah in Salaah will attract the Divine Aid of Allah Ta’ala! Rather, this may lead to further problems and difficulties.

Furthermore, as some of our Ulama-e-Haq have previously stated that since the government knows very well that certain religious members will not follow their protocols and laws since they oppose the way of their religions, they have adopted certain people as their agents to do this ‘work’ of theirs. These certain ‘scholars’ are also playing the role of being the agents of the governments. Thus, these ‘scholars’ propagate and enforce un-Islamic ways upon Muslims. Alhamdulillah, to combat this evil of theirs, there are Ulama-e-Haq who are guiding us accordingly.

Among the open and clear propagation of the ‘Ulama’-e-government in an audio clip we were made aware of, one such ‘scholar’ who is of the fraternity of the ‘Ulama’-e-government – the shutters of the Masaajid, the anti-Masjid, anti-Haq and anti-Sunnah mob – the following claims were made:

1. Many people in the town are the carriers of the virus, it mustn’t be that they are the cause of this spreading if it is the will of Allah.
2. Keep coming to the Masjid and read Salaah under whatever conditions we are made to read.

Our brief comments: While the first claim states ‘the will of Allah’, the scholar is still not free of playing a role in the fear-mongering just like the government amid the so-called second wave! Yes, only Allah is the giver of a sickness, but why subtly insert panic and fear into people with the fear-mongering tactic and technique like the governments and atheists? Since no sickness is contagious as per the Hadith of ‘Laa Adwaa’ (There is NO contagion [Bukhari]), going or not to public places matters not, ISLAMICALLY!

The ‘scholar’ has failed to understand the importance of filling the gaps in the Sufoof to be an Immutable Shar’i Protocol! Once this understanding penetrates the heart – a healthy heart, not a heart contaminated with allowing females on radio stations or sitting with ladies in Dajjal’s office (TV studios) even if dubbed as ‘Islamic TV!’ – a person’s heart will NOT accept performing Salaah in any other condition besides in the condition governed by the Sunnah and the Shari’ah.

Whilst many more paragraphs can be written under these two points, we will suffice with this much. People with Imaan who are searching for the Haq will understand well, Insha Allah.
